PROCESS FOR EXPIRATION OF OUTDATED/UNNECESSARY RULES

The Council's Chair, via letter to the Agency, schedules review of

The Agency works to identify outdated/unnecessary rule(s).

identified rule(s) and provides notice of the report's due date.

The Agency takes no action on the Council's letter.

The Agency determines that the identified rule(s) should be expired, rather than amended.

One week later, at the Council's next regular meeting, the Council votes to require the Agency to submit a review report on identified rule(s).

Once the report's due date passes, the identified rule(s) expire.

The Agency notifies Council Staff of rule(s) identified for expiration.

At the Council's next study session, Council Staff recommends that the Council require the Agency to submit a review report on the identified rule(s).

The Council submits a Notice of Rule Expiration to the Secretary of State for publication in the Administrative Register.
